RULES AND CODES OF CONDUCT

The aim of the Coaching & Tournament social event is to promote the awareness of Parkinson's Disease, and provide a social, friendly, safe and enjoyable experience to all participants.

Players and visitors are expected to behave in a manner that contributes to this positive ethos of the tournament

The club believes that it is important that everyone associated with the tournament should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others.

Entry is £7.50 per player

Timings

Coaching to Start at 10am

Social Activities to Start at 11:00am

Doubles Event to Start at about 12:15am

Main Event and Presentation will End at around 2:15pm

Games will be just 3 legs/ends

Coaching will teach some forehands, backhands and to serve. People will be around to help feed balls and we will accommodate for whatever you need!

Social Activities will include any Catch up Games, Singles or Doubles

Doubles will start as a knock-out event, all winners will go forward in to the main draw., and all the losers will go though to a consolation draw.

All players will get at least 2 games, if you progress through the draws, you could get 3, 4 or even 5 games if reaching the Finals.

Any groups having players winning one game each, it will be decided on legs won and lost, if the same, it'll be points won and lost.

The tournament committee have the final say on anything that's not covered in the Rules and Codes of Conduct.
